INTERNSHIP AGREEMENT

Software Engineer Intern

Raison Consult

1. PARTIES

This Internship Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into as of 30th, March, 2026, by and between:

Company	Intern
Raison Consult Nairobi, Kenya ("Company")	Name: ONGORO IAN OWUOR Address: owuorian95@gmail.com ("Intern") 0713813092

2. INTERNSHIP TERM

The internship shall commence on 30th, March, 2026 and shall continue for a period of three (3) months, concluding on 30th, June, 2026 ("Initial Term"), unless terminated earlier in accordance with this Agreement.

At the conclusion of the Initial Term, the Company may, at its sole discretion and based on a performance evaluation, offer the Intern a paid internship position. Any such extension shall be documented in a separate written agreement outlining the terms of compensation, revised duties, and duration.

3. ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Intern is engaged in the role of Software Engineer Intern and will be responsible for the following:

- Assisting in the development and maintenance of software applications, covering both back-end and front-end development tasks.
- Writing clean, efficient, and well-documented code.
- Debugging and testing software applications to ensure quality and performance standards are met.
- Participating in code reviews and providing constructive feedback.
- Collaborating with the engineering team on assigned projects.
- Adhering to project timelines and communicating proactively on progress and blockers.

4. WORK ARRANGEMENT

This is a hybrid role based in Nairobi County, Kenya. The Intern will be required to attend in-person sessions as directed by the Company, with the remainder of the work carried out remotely. The specific schedule, reporting line, and daily coordination will be communicated at onboarding.

5. COMPENSATION

This internship is unpaid for the duration of the Initial Term. The Intern shall not be entitled to any salary, wages, or monetary compensation during the three (3) month period covered by this Agreement.

Upon successful completion of the Initial Term and subject to a satisfactory performance review, the Company may offer the Intern a paid internship position. Any compensation under such an extended arrangement shall be negotiated and agreed upon in a separate written instrument.

6. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

All work product, code, designs, documentation, and any other materials created by the Intern in the course of the internship shall be and remain the exclusive property of Raison Consult. The Intern hereby assigns to the Company all rights, title, and interest in any such work product, including all intellectual property rights.

7. CONFIDENTIALITY

The Intern acknowledges that during the course of the internship, they may have access to confidential information belonging to Raison Consult, its clients, and business partners. The Intern agrees to:

- Keep all confidential information strictly private and not disclose it to any third party without prior written consent from the Company.
- Use confidential information solely for the purposes of carrying out duties under this Agreement.
- Return or destroy all confidential materials upon request or at the end of the internship.

This confidentiality obligation survives the termination or expiry of this Agreement.

8. CONDUCT AND PERFORMANCE

The Intern agrees to:

- Conduct themselves professionally and in accordance with the Company's policies, values, and code of conduct.
- Complete assigned tasks with diligence, accountability, and within agreed timelines.
- Attend required meetings, check-ins, and training sessions.
- Disclose any conflicts of interest or outside engagements that may affect their availability or performance.

9. PERFORMANCE EVALUATION

At or before the conclusion of the Initial Term, the Company will conduct a formal performance evaluation of the Intern. The evaluation will consider, among other factors: quality of work output, technical growth, communication, professionalism, and adherence to timelines.

The outcome of this evaluation will inform the Company's decision on whether to extend an offer for a paid internship position. A positive evaluation does not guarantee an offer of employment or a paid extension.

10. TERMINATION

Either party may terminate this Agreement at any time by providing five (5) business days' written notice to the other party. The Company may terminate this Agreement immediately and without notice in the event of gross misconduct, breach of confidentiality, or violation of the Company's policies.

11. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Kenya. Any disputes arising from or in connection with this Agreement shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Kenya.

12. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior discussions, representations, and agreements. No amendment to this Agreement shall be binding unless made in writing and signed by both parties.
